INTRODUCTION

UNIVERSAL TOKEN (UNIV) is proudly brought to you by members of the Cannabis & Fashion community. For many years, and still today, the Cannabis community has been a decentralized space. While this feature sets our community apart, it creates challenges that deter the growth of sustainability within the industry. Our lifelong dream is to build infrastructures that help address these challenges, and we believe that blockchain and decentralized financing could aid us in achieving this. We also Strongly agree that Not everyone can afford clothing such as shirts and pants. Our mission is to help change that by help connecting people with the correct resources to do so and to help others!

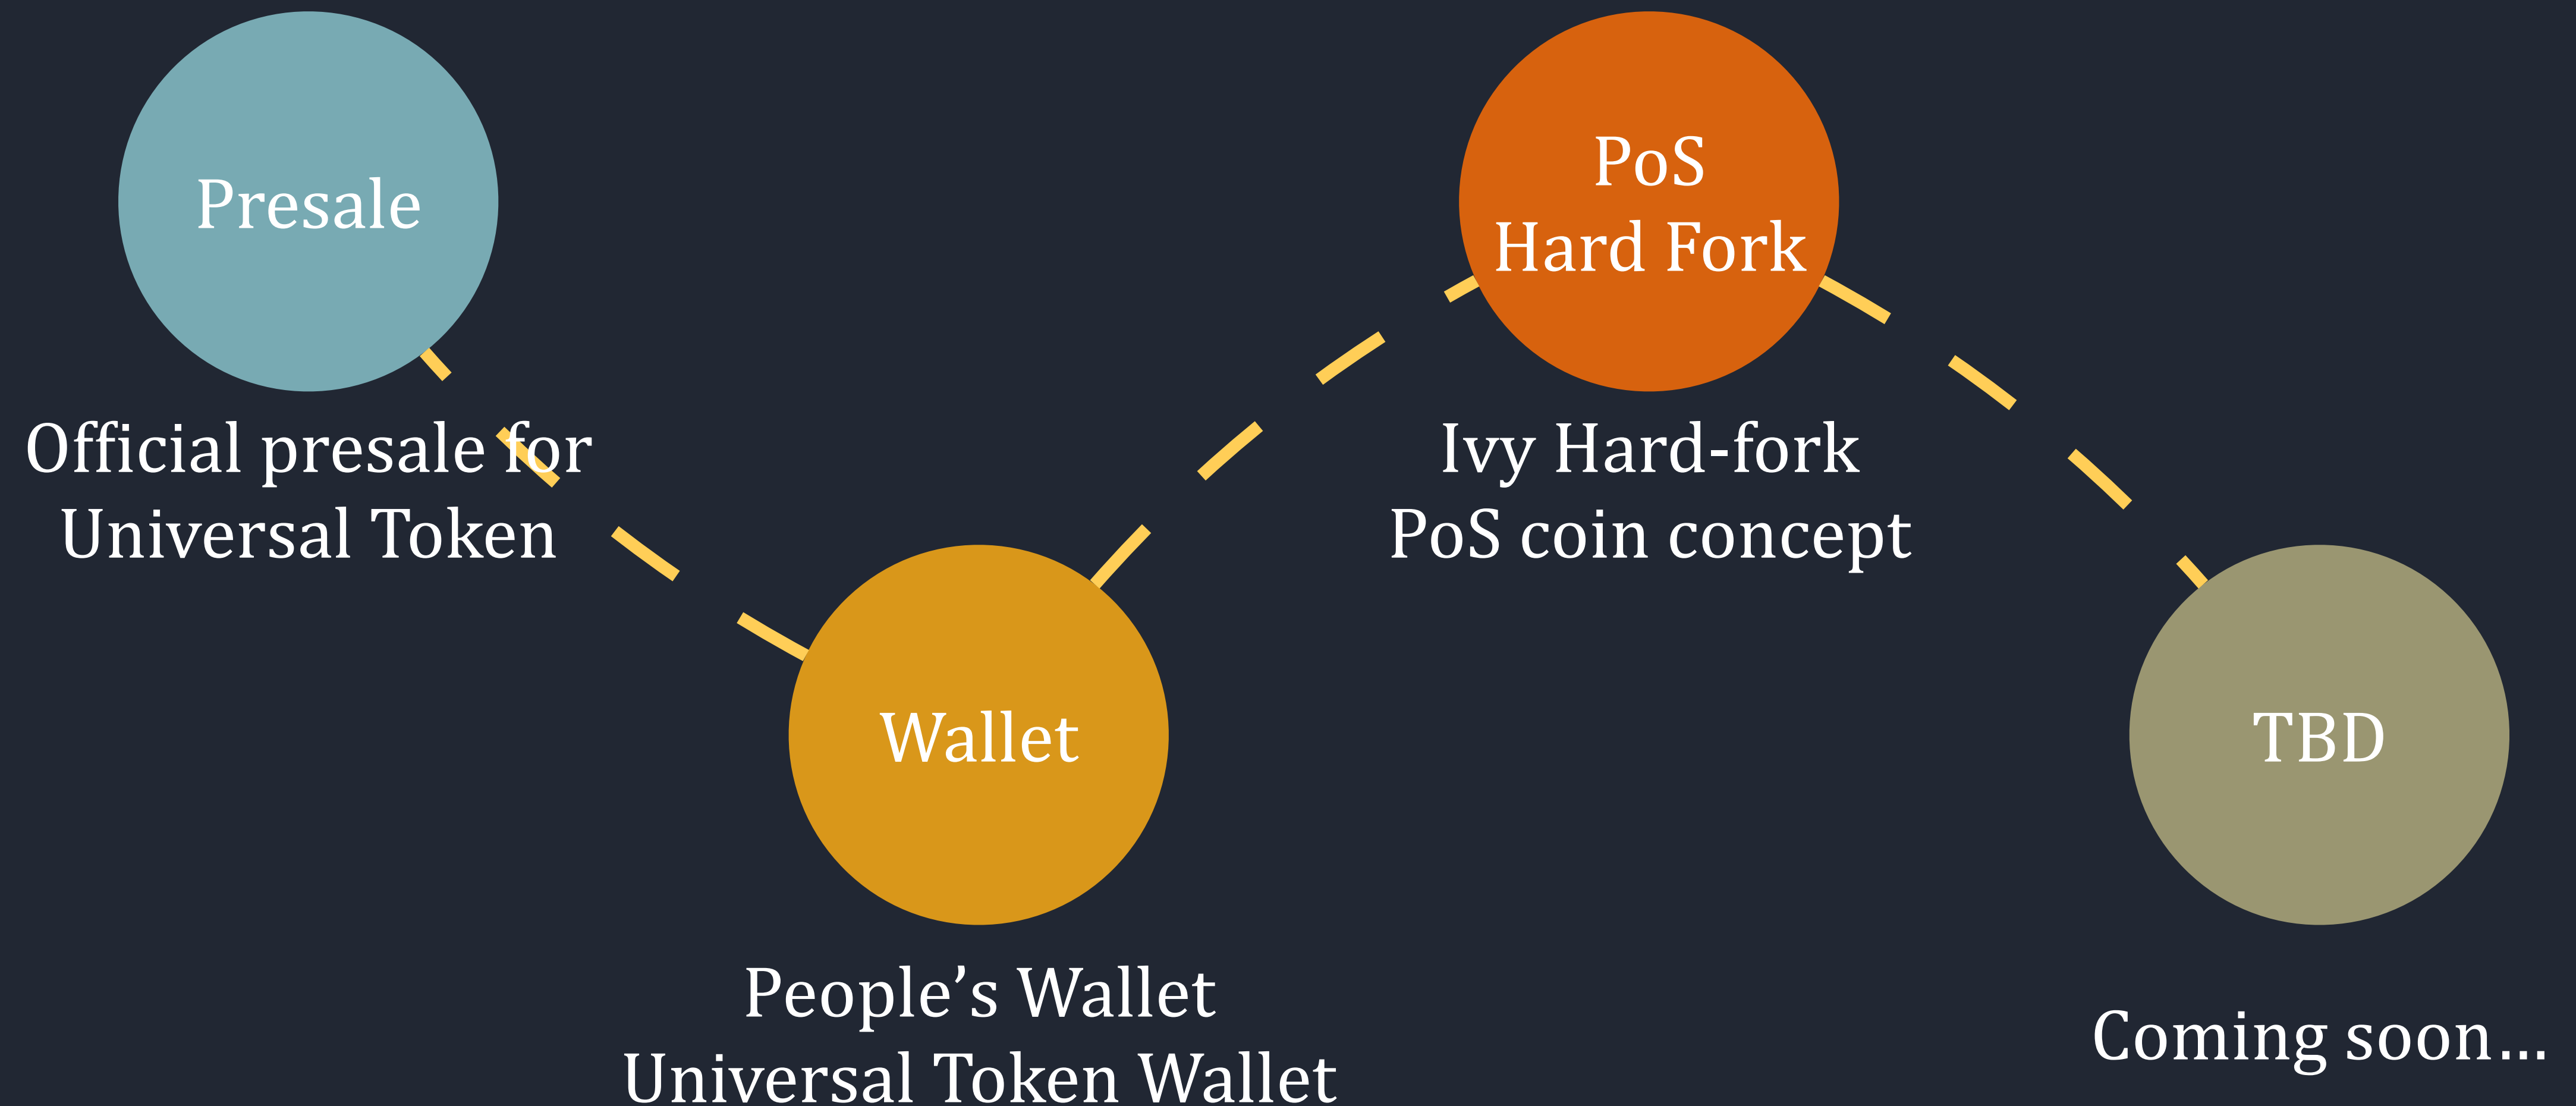

OUR PHILOSOPHY & VISION

1. We strive to support the sustainable growth of both Cannabis and Clothing businesses
2. Our mission is our holders build and create a strong community as we grow
